

MOST POPULAR

Home>>World

Last updated at: (Beijing Time) Saturday, February 28, 2004

Report: Osama bin Laden captured; Pakistan denies

Iran's state radio says Osama bin Laden has been captured along the border between Afghanistan and Pakistan. However, Pakistani foreign minister has denied the capture of Osama bin Laden.

PRINT

DISCUSSION

CHINESE

SEND TO FRIEND

Iran's state radio said Osama bin Laden has been captured along the border between Afghanistan and Pakistan.

In a report quoting "knowledgeable sources," the official Iranian media outlet did not specify when the Al-Qaida leader was captured, and the report has yet to be confirmed elsewhere.

It said that Bin Laden was apprehended in a region populated by tribes along the border of the two countries.

However, Pakistani foreign minister has denied the capture of Osama bin Laden.

Bin Laden has been the target of a massive manhunt by the United States since the September 11, 2000 attacks, which killed thousands.

Questions?Comments? Click here

Search

Go

Advanced

Related News

US determined to nab bin Laden: officialBin Laden cornered in Pakistan's northwest

Hot Discussions

"Keep pace with the times" becomes ad title on NY Times ( 4 Messages)China suspends crude oil exports to Japan ( 11 Messages)Alstom, front runner in China's high-speed railway bidding ( 4 Messages)Experts: China may raise renminbi interest rate ( 4 Messages)Chinese language losing popularity in Singapore ( 24 Messages)

Copyright by People's Daily Online, all rights reserved